

Rajasthan State Pollution Control Board

Q1. How an industry can deposit the Fees amount in RSPCB Bank Account through NEFT/RTGS?

Ans.: There are three options by which an industry can deposit the fees amount in RSPCB Bank Account through NEFT/RTGS

- 1. Through net banking: Any industry can open their bank account using Internet and transfer the fees amount in the RSPCB Bank Account. On successful transfer one UTR (Unique Transaction Reference) number is generated.
- 2. Through manual system: Any industry can fill the bank challan for funds transfer in RSPCB Bank Account. In this case bank transfer the fees amount in RSPCB Bank Account and provide a receipt to the industry. In this case industry is requested to get the complete UTR no. from the bank.
- 3. Bank Transfer:In case the bank account of the industry is Bank of Baroda then the funds are transferred to the RSPCB Bank Account through Bank Transfer. In this case UTR no. is not generated. The industry are requested to take the complete bank transaction no. from their Bank.(Bank Transaction number is a numeric digit number)

Format of UTR No.

Bank Name	UTR Format
State Bank of Bikaner & Jaipur	SBBJ81xxx44xxxx5
HDFC Bank	HDFCR00000xxxxxxxxxx781
ICICI Bank	ICICR220xxxxxxxxxxxxxx49
AXIS Bank	AXISF15xxxxxxxxxx5
Cooperative Bank	872305478
Punjab National Bank	PUNBR5xxxxxxxxxxxxxx0395

Note: The UTR No. can start with preceding zero’s. The industry is requested to take the full UTR No. along with bank name and enter the same in the RSPCB MIS Application for verification.

Please do not remove alphabets and number. Do not remove the leading zeros. The UTR No. should exactly match with the number stored in the RSPCB Database for verification.
